

Acts 10:34-43

Easter Sunday

Then Pe-ter be-gan to speak to them: “I tru-ly understand that God shows no par-ti- al-i-ty, but in every people an-y- one who fears him and prac-tic-es righteousness is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Isra- el, preaching peace by Je-sus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Ju-de- a, be-gin-ning in Gal-i-lee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Je-sus of Naz-a-reth with the Ho-ly Spir- it and with power; how he went about do- ing good and heal- ing all who were oppressed by the dev-il, for God was with him.

We are witnesses to all that he did both in Ju-de- a and in Je- ru-sa-lem.

They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and al-lowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were cho-sen by God as witnesses and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to tes-tify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the liv-ing and the dead.

All the prophets tes-ti-fy about him that every- one who be-lieves in him re-ceive forgiveness of sins through his name.”
