

2 Corinthians 6:1-10

Of a Monastic II

As we work to-gether with him, we entreat you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, “At an acceptable time I have lis-tened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.” Look, now is the acceptable time; look, now is the day of salvation! We are put-ting no obstacle in an-y- one’s way, so that no fault may be found with our min-istry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way:

in great endur-ance, afflictions, hardships, ca-lami-ties, beat-ings, imprisonments, ri-ots, la-bors, sleepless nights, hunger; in pu-ri-ty, knowledge, pa-tience, kindness, ho-li-ness of spir-it, gen-u-ine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in hon-or and dishon-or, in ill re-pute and good re-pute.

We are treat-ed as impostors and yet are true, as unknown and yet are well known, as dy- ing and look—we are a-live, as pun-ished and yet not killed, as sorrowful yet always re-joic-ing, as poor yet mak-ing man-y rich, as hav-ing nothing and yet possessing everything.
