

Acts 2:1-21

Pentecost (Principal)

W hen the day of Pente-cost had come, they were all to-gether in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a vi- o-lent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sit-ting.

Di-vid-ed tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Ho-ly Spir- it and be-gan to speak in other languag-es, as the Spir- it gave them a- bil- i-ty. Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven liv-ing in Je- ru-sa-lem.

And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the na-tive language of each. Amazed and aston-ished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Gal-i-le-ans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own na-tive language? Parthians, Medes, E-lamites, and res-i-dents of Mes-o-po-tami- a, Ju-de- a and Cappa-do-ci- a, Pontus and Asia, Phryg-i- a and Pamphyl-i- a, E-gypt and the parts of Lib-y- a be-longing to Cy-re-ne, and vis-i-tors from Rome, both Jews and prose-lytes, Cre-tans and Ar-abs—in our own languag-es we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, say-ing to one an-other, “What does this mean?” But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Pe-ter, standing with the e-lev-en, raised his voice and addressed them, “Fel-low Jews and all who live in Je-ru-sa-lem, let this be known to you, and lis-ten to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spo-ken through the prophet Jo-el: ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spir-it up-on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophe-sy, and your young men shall see vi-sions, and your old men shall dream dreams. E-ven up-on my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spir-it, and they shall prophe-sy. And
