

Romans 4:13-25

Proper 5

F or the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abra-ham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. For if it is the adher-ents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law, neither is there transgression. For this reason the promise de-pends on faith, in order that it may rest on grace, so that it may be guar-anteed to all his descendants, not only to the adher-ents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abra-ham Hop-ing against hope, he be-lieved that he would be-come“the father of man-y nations,” according to what was said,“So shall your descend-ants be.” He did not weaken in faith when he consid-ered his own bod-y, which was already as good as dead

No distrust made him wa-ver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glo-ry to God, be- ing ful-ly convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore“it was reckoned to him as righteous-ness.” Now the words,“it was reckoned to him,” were writ-ten not for his sake a-lone but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who be-lieve in him who raised Je-sus our Lord from the dead, who was handed o-ver for our trespasses and was raised for our justi- fi- cation.
