

It is tru- ly right to glo-ri-fy you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you a-lone are God, li- ving and true, dwel-ling in light in-accessible from be-fore time and for e-ver. Foun- tain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you cre- a-ted them to re-joice in the splendor of your ra-di- ance. Count- less throngs of angels stand be-fore you to serve you night and day; and, be-hol-ding the glo-ry of your pre-sence, they of-fer you uncea-sing praise.
 Joi- ning with them, and gi-ving voice to every crea-ture un-der heaven, we acclaim you, and glo-ri-fy your Name, as we sing,
