

Ephesians 1:11-23

Feast of All Saints

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord

Je-sus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers, that the God of our Lord Je-sus Christ, the Father of glo-ry, may give you a spirit of wisdom and rev-e-lation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may perceive what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glo-ri-ous inher-it-ance among the saints, and what is the immeasur-able greatness of his power for us who be-lieve, according to the working of his great power.

God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seat-ed him at his right hand in the heavenly plac-es, far a-bove all rule and author-i-ty and power and dominion and a-bove every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head o-ver all things for the church, which is his bod-y, the fullness of him who fills all in all.
