

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

Justin

F or the message about the cross is fool-ishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are be- ing saved it is the power of God. For it is writ-ten, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.” Where is the one who is wise? Where is the schol-ar? Where is the de-bat-er of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God de-cid-ed, through the fool-ishness of the proclamation, to save those who be-lieve. For Jews ask for signs and Greeks de-sire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ cru-ci-fied, a stumbl-ing block to Jews and fool-ishness to gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

For God's fool-ishness is wis-er than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.
