Acts 18:1-4, 18-21, 24-28

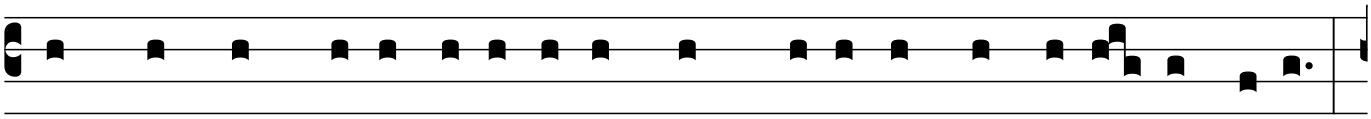
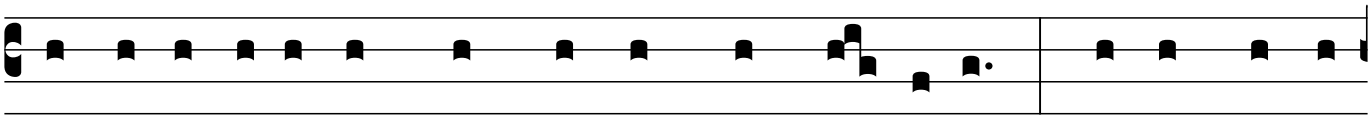
Priscilla and Aquila by Pris-cil-la and Aqui- la. At Cenchreae he had his hair cut, for he was under a vow. When they reached Ephe-sus, he left them there, but first he himself went into the syn-a-gogue and had a discussion with the Jews. When they asked him to stay longer, he de-clined, but on tak-ing leave of them he said, "I will re-turn to you, if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephe-sus.



Now there came to Ephe-sus a Jew named Apol-los from Al-ex- andri- a.



He was an el-oquent man, well-versed in the scriptures. He had been instructed in the Way of the Lord, and he spoke with burning enthu-si- asm and taught accu-rately the things concerning Je-sus, though he knew only the baptism of John. He be-gan to speak boldly in the syn-a-gogue, but when Pris-cil-la and Aqui- la heard him they took him a-side and explained the Way of God to him more ac- cu-rately. And when he wished to cross o-ver to Acha-ia, the brothers and sis-ters encouraged him and wrote to the dis-ciples to welcome him. On his arri-val he greatly helped those who through grace had be-come be-liev-ers, for he powerful-ly re-fut-ed the Jews in public, showing by the scriptures that the Messi- ah is Je-sus.
